

THE LATEST

CONSTRUCTION

Gregg Blair of Windham has been hired as chief financial officer at Jewett Construction, Concord. Prior to joining Jewett, he ran the U.S. accounting department for a national homebuilding firm.

Spencer Thomas Group, Portsmouth, recently completed renovation of a 100-year-old commer-

Thayer School of Engineering, and University of New Hampshire space plasma physicist Harlan Spence have been named fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Helble was cited for contributions in the areas of air pollution, aerosols, nanoscale ceramics and air quality, and for excellence in teaching and professional service. Spence, director of UNH's Institute for the Study of Earth, Oceans and Space and professor of physics, was recognized for distinguished contributions to space exploration, the development of instruments to characterize the radiation Selectman Rick Hiland of Albany; and Selectman David Swenson of New Durham.

Paul Phillips, an attorney with Primmer Piper Eggleston & Cramer, was among those named by Gov. Chris Sununu to the newly formed Advisory Council on Diversity and Inclusion. Phillips also serves as chair of the NH Human Rights Commission.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Renee Baldini has joined Franklin Savings Bank manager at the main office in downtown Franklin. Baldini, who has 20 years of experience in banking, most recently worked as director of development and marketing for Beckwith Development Enterprises LLC.

NONPROFITS

Sheehan Phinney Bass & Green shareholder Susan A. Manchester

Manchester-based Members First Credit Union is pledging to support critical community programs, and is encouraging other credit unions across the nation to do the same with funds from an unexpected rebate from the National Credit Union Administration, which recently announced anticipated reimbursements totaling $600 million to $800 million to federally insured credit unions nationwide. Members First said it will donate 100 percent of its refund to local nonprofits dealing with at-risk youth, people struggling with homelessness and hunger and organizations working to address the opioid crisis.

chester, to Novus Vita Counseling PLLC of Manchester, has been announced by Mike Reed of Stebbins Commercial Properties, who represented the seller in the transaction. Dan Silva of Keller Williams, Bedford, represented the buyer. Sale price was $450,000. Reed also represented the landlord, 850 Perimeter Road LLC, in the recent lease of an 11,660-square-foot industrial building at 801 Perimeter Rd., Manchester. Reed also represented the lessee, Mach V Group LLC.

David and Nancy Ernsberger have sold the building that housed their The Nest gift shop at 97 Main St.,