

Membership and Account Agreement & Disclosures

The provisions set forth in this Membership and Account Agreement ("Agreement") apply to all Members of Members First Credit Union of New Hampshire who hold individual and joint consumer share savings or share draft accounts. Throughout the Agreement, Members First Credit Union of New Hampshire will be called the "Credit Union", "we" or "us" and the words "you" and "yours" will refer to anyone who signs a Membership or Account Card.

Your account type(s) and ownership features are designated on your Membership or Account Card. By signing either, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in the Agreement and Membership or Account Card, the Funds Availability Policy Disclosure, Truth-in-Savings Disclosure, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement and Disclosure, and the Privacy Notice Disclosure accompanying this Agreement. This Agreement is a legally binding contract. Please READ and RETAIN this Agreement. If you have any questions after reading this Agreement, the Credit Union will provide clarification upon request.

Membership and Accounts

1. Par Value – Par value of a regular share in this Credit Union is $5.00
2. Membership Eligibility – To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union, you must live, work, or go to school in the State of New Hampshire, and must purchase and maintain the minimum required share(s) as set forth in this Agreement. You authorize the Credit Union to check your account, credit, and employment history, and obtain a credit report from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request.
3. Individual Accounts – An individual account is an account owned by one (1) Member (individual, trust or other organization) qualified for Credit Union membership. If the account owner dies, the interest passes, subject to applicable law, to the account owner's estate or Payable on Death (POD) beneficiary/payee or trust beneficiary, subject to other provisions of this Agreement governing our protection for honoring transfer and withdrawal requests of an owner or owner's agent prior to notice of an owner's death and to any security interest or pledge granted by the account owner and subject to our statutory lien rights.
4. Joint Accounts – A joint account is an account owned by two (2) or more persons.
 - a. Rights of Survivorship. Unless otherwise stated on the Account Card, a joint account includes rights of survivorship. This means when one (1) owner dies, all sums in the account will pass to the surviving owner(s). For a joint account without rights of survivorship, the deceased owner's interest passes to his or her estate. A surviving owner's interest is subject to the Credit Union's statutory lien for the deceased owner's obligations, and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner, even if a surviving owner did not consent to it.
 - b. Control of Joint Accounts. Any owner is authorized and deemed to act for any other owner(s) and may instruct us regarding transactions and other account matters. Each owner guarantees the signature of any other owner(s). Any owner may withdraw all funds, stop payment on items, transfer, or pledge to us all or any part of the shares without the consent of the other owner(s). We have no duty to notify any owner(s) about any transaction. We reserve the right to require written consent of all owners for any change to or termination of an account. If we receive written notice of a dispute between owners or inconsistent instructions from them, we may suspend or terminate the account and require a court order or written consent from all owners to act.
 - c. Joint Account Owner Liability. If an item deposited in a joint account is returned unpaid, a joint account is overdrawn, or if we do not receive final payment on a transaction, the owners, jointly and severally, are liable to us for the amount of the returned item, overdraft, or unpaid amount and any charges, regardless of who initiated or benefited from the transaction. If any account owner is indebted to us, we may enforce our rights against any account of the indebted owner, including all funds in the joint account regardless of who contributed the funds in the account.
5. POD/Trust Account Designations – A Payable on Death (POD) account designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that an individual or joint account so designated is payable to the owner(s) during his, her or their lifetimes and, when the last account owner dies, payable to all named and surviving POD or trust beneficiaries/payees. If there is more than one (1) surviving beneficiary/payee, the account is owned jointly by such beneficiaries/payees without rights of survivorship upon the death of the last account owner. Any POD or trust beneficiary/payee designation shall not apply to Individual Retirement accounts (IRAs). We are not obligated to notify any beneficiary/payee of the existence of any account or the vesting of the beneficiary/payee's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law. This paragraph does not apply to an account held on behalf of or held in the name of a trust.
6. Accounts for Minors – We require any account established by a minor to be a joint account with an owner who has reached the age of majority under state law and who shall be jointly and severally liable to us for any returned item, overdraft, or unpaid charges or amounts on such account. We may pay funds directly to the minor without regard to his or her minority unless the Credit Union has received written notice from the minor owner's guardian to withhold payments to the minor. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction. We will change the account status when the minor reaches the age of majority (18 years old).

7. Uniform Transfers/Gifts to Minors Accounts – A Uniform Transfers/Gifts to Minors Account (UTMA/UGMA) is an individual account created by a custodian who deposits funds as an irrevocable gift to a minor. The minor to whom the gift is made is the beneficiary of the custodial property in the account. The custodian has possession and control of the account for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor, and, barring a court order otherwise, is the only party entitled to make deposits, withdrawals, or close the account. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction. If the custodian dies, we may suspend the account until we receive instructions from any person authorized by law to withdraw funds or a court order authorizing withdrawal. It is the custodians' responsibility to turn the funds over to the minor beneficiary once the minor reaches the appropriate age of majority.
8. Accounts for Living Trusts - An account of a living trust is an individual account held by one or more trustees of a trust for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries pursuant to a revocable trust agreement. Upon request of the Credit Union, the trustee shall sign an Account Authorization Card and provide any other evidence of the trustee's authority the Credit Union requires. Trustee warrants that a valid living trust has been created, currently exists, and that the trustor and primary beneficiary are eligible for membership in the Credit Union. The Credit Union does not act as a trustee and is under no obligation to inquire as to the powers or duties of the trustee(s). Trustee agrees to notify the Credit Union in writing if a change of trustee occurs. Credit Union may withhold payment of funds to any party until proper evidence of authority is provided. Credit Union may rely upon the directions of any one trustee until a written notice of revocation of the living trust or an Account Change form is received. Funds may be released to any one trustee acting alone or with a co-trustee. The trustee(s) agrees to indemnify and hold Credit Union harmless of any liability, claim, damage or loss arising as a result of unauthorized acts of any trustee or former trustee or acts of any trustee upon which Credit Union relies prior to notice of revocation of the trust. This Agreement shall be binding on the trust, any trustee, successor trustee and beneficiaries.
9. Accounts of Organizations - Accounts held in the name of a club or association Member are subject to the same terms set forth in this Agreement and the following additional rules. The Credit Union reserves the right to require the Member to provide an Account Authorization Card informing the Credit Union who is authorized to act on its behalf. You agree to notify the Credit Union of any change in authority. The Credit Union may rely on the written authorization until such time as the Credit Union is informed of changes in writing and has had a reasonable time to act upon such notice. The Credit Union may require that third party checks payable to a club or association may not be cashed, but must be deposited to an account. The Credit Union shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any agent of the account owner, unless the Credit Union has actual notice of any wrongdoing.
10. Fiduciary Accounts – A fiduciary account is an account opened by an executor, administrator, personal representative, guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary in such capacity authorized under a will, court order or trust instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship trustee or a Representative Payee authorized by the Social Security Administration ("fiduciary"). The account owner is the estate, guardianship, conservatorship, trust or Social Security Administration benefit recipient as the sole owner of this account. The fiduciary is authorized to act on behalf of the account owner but has no ownership interest in the account. The fiduciary is the only authorized party to transact on this account. The fiduciary is expressly authorized to endorse all items payable to or owned by the Account owner for deposit with or collection by the Credit Union and to execute such other agreements and to perform any other account transaction under the Agreement. The fiduciary is authorized to receive account information from the Credit Union, either orally or in writing, and any information related to the account. The authority given to the fiduciary shall remain in full force until a court order, termination of the account owner or written notice of revocation is received by the Credit Union either by a court appointed representative of the account owner or by the Social Security Administration, as applicable. Any such notice shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is given. The fiduciary will notify the Credit Union of any change in the account owner's status affecting the deposit relationship between the account owner and the Credit Union. The fiduciary warrants that all actions he or she takes regarding the account will be for the sole benefit of the account owner and that the fiduciary will not conduct any transaction on the account that will personally benefit the fiduciary or will not comply with the terms of the applicable laws, will, court order or instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship. The Credit Union may rely upon these representations and shall have no duty to examine such authorizing documents for compliance or inquire as to the powers and duties of the fiduciary and shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties by the fiduciary unless the Credit Union has actual notice of wrongdoing. The account owner agrees that the Credit Union shall not be liable for any losses due to the account owner's failure to notify the Credit Union of any unauthorized acts of the fiduciary or changes to the relationship between the fiduciary and account owner. The account owner and fiduciary agree to indemnify and hold Credit Union harmless of any claim or liability as a result of unauthorized acts of the fiduciary upon which Credit Union relies prior to any actual notice of any account change or change of account owner.
11. Deposit of Funds Requirements – Funds may be deposited in any manner approved by the Credit Union in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Truth in Savings Disclosure. Deposits made by mail, at night depositories or at unstaffed facilities are not our responsibility until we receive them. If the Credit Union receives an item on a weekend or holiday, the item is deemed to have been received on the Credit Union's next business day. The Credit Union's business days and cutoff hours are subject to change at the Credit Union's discretion. We reserve the right to refuse or to return any deposit.
 - a. Endorsements - We may accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts if they are made payable to, or to the order of, one (1) or more account owners even if they are not endorsed by all payees. You authorize us to supply missing endorsements of any owners if we choose. If a check, draft or item that is payable to two (2) or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to either or both, we may process the check, draft or item as though it is payable to either person. If an insurance, government, or other check or draft requires an endorsement, we may require endorsement as set forth on the item. Endorsements must be made on the back of the share draft or check within 1 ½ inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsement or other markings you or any prior endorser makes on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error.

- b. Crediting of Deposits - Unless otherwise stated in the Credit Union's Funds Availability Policy, deposits received at our offices on business days will be available to your account the second business day after deposit, unless it is after the current cut off time. Deposits made on Saturdays, Sundays, or a Credit Union holiday will be credited to your account on the next business day. Deposits received at unstaffed teller locations such as night depositories will be credited on the day funds are removed and processed by the Credit Union. Failure to provide adequate account information may delay crediting funds to your account. Items drawn from an institution outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. Funds will be credited to your account when we receive final payment. You waive any notice of non-payment, dishonor, or protest regarding any items purchased or received by the Credit Union for credit to your account or for collection.
- c. Direct Deposits - We accept preauthorized deposits (e.g., payroll checks, Social Security or retirement checks, or other government checks) or preauthorized transfers from other accounts. You must authorize direct deposits or preauthorized transfers by filling out a separate form. You must notify us at least 30 days in advance to cancel or change a direct deposit or transfer option. If your account is overdrawn, you authorize us to deduct the amount your account is overdrawn from any future deposits, including deposits of government payments or benefits. Upon a bankruptcy filing, unless you cancel the authorizations, we will continue applying payments from direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with us. If we are required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account, we may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.
- d. Collection of Items - We act only as your agent and we are not responsible for handling items for deposit or collection beyond the exercise of ordinary care. We are not liable for the negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. We may send any item for collection. Items drawn on an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payer financial institution extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.
- e. Restrictive Legends - Some checks and drafts contain restrictive legends or similar limitations on the front of the item. Examples of restrictive legends include "two signatures required," "void after 60 days," or "not valid over $500." We are not liable for payment of any check or draft contrary to a restrictive legend or other limitation contained in or on the item unless we have specifically agreed in writing to the restrictions or limitations.
- f. Returned Deposited Items - All deposited checks credited to your account are provisional until we receive final payment. If final payment is not received, we may charge your account for the amount of such items or ACH transfers and impose a Deposited Check Returned Fee on your account. Any collection fees we incur may be charged to your account. We reserve the right to refuse or return any item or funds transfer.

12. Account Access:

- a. Authorized Signature - In order to access your account(s), the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on a Membership Card. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature, but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any draft that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you authorize a third person to pay items from your account, you authorize the Credit Union to honor transactions initiated by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction.
- b. Access Options - You may access your account(s) through telephone, online banking, mobile banking, Automated Teller Machine (ATM), or in person at any of our branch locations. You may also mail deposits, or use our night depository drops at our Union Street and Bedford locations.
- c. Unpaid Item - We may return, as unpaid, any check or draft deposited into your account if the document is drawn on a form we do not provide, and you are responsible for any loss we incur handling such a check or draft. Additionally, the Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any share draft or other item drawn against your account or used to withdraw funds from your account if made more frequently or in a greater number than specifically permitted for your account, or if made in an amount less than the minimum withdrawal or transfer specifically permitted for your account.
- d. Power of Attorney - We have the right to review and approve any form of power of attorney and may restrict account withdrawals or transfers.
- e. ACH & Wire Transfers - This agreement is subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code – Funds Transfers adopted in the State in which you have your account with us. If you originate a funds transfer and you identify by name and number a beneficiary financial institution, an intermediary institution or a beneficiary, we and every receiving beneficiary financial institution, intermediary financial institution or beneficiary, may rely on the identifying number to make payment. We may relay on the number even if it identifies a financial, person, or account other than the one named. You agree to be bound by the automated clearing house association rules. These rules provide, among other things that payments made to you, or originated by you, are provisional until final settlement is made through a Federal Reserve Bank or payment is otherwise made provisional as provided in Article 4A-403(a) of the Uniform Commercial Code. If we do not receive such payment, we are entitled to a refund from you in the amount credited to your account and the party originating such payment will not be considered to have paid the amount so credited. Credit Entries may be made by ACH. If we receive a payment order to credit an account you have with us by wire or ACH, we are not required to give you notice of the payment order or credit. Receive credits or debits to your account via wire transfer, electronic funds transfer or ACH transfer. You agree that if you receive funds by a wire, electronic funds transfer or ACH transfer, the Credit Union is not required to notify you at the time the funds are received. Instead, the transfer will be shown on your periodic statement. The cut-off time for incoming wires, foreign and domestic, is 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The cut-off time for outgoing domestic wires is 2:30pm, Monday through Friday. Wire transfers are governed by Federal Reserve Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. Any account owner may amend or cancel a payment order even if that person did not initiate the order. We may refuse requests to amend or cancel a payment order that we believe will expose the Credit Union to liability or loss. Any request to amend or cancel a payment order that we accept will be processed within a reasonable time after it is received. You agree to hold us harmless from and indemnify us for all losses and expenses resulting from any actual or attempted amendment or cancellation of a payment order. We may require you to follow a security procedure to execute a payment order or certain electronic funds transfer transactions. We will notify you of any such security procedures and you agree that our security procedures are commercially reasonable.

- f. Account Rates and Fees – The Credit Union’s payment of dividends on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payments and balance requirements as set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure, the Fee Schedule, and various Account Rate Sheets, which are incorporated herein for reference, save for the Fee Schedule. A current Rate and Fee Schedule have been provided to you separately. You agree the Credit Union may change the Rate and Fee Schedule and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

13. Transaction Limitations:

- a. Withdrawal Restrictions - We will pay checks or drafts, permit withdrawals and make transfers from available funds in your account. The availability of funds in your account may be delayed as described in our Funds Availability Policy Disclosure. We may also pay checks or drafts, permit withdrawals and make transfers from your account from insufficient available funds if you have established an overdraft protection plan or, if you do not have such a plan with us, according to our Overdraft Policy. We may refuse to allow a withdrawal in some situations, and will advise you accordingly: for example: any dispute between account owners (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to us; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. The Credit Union reserves the right to require Members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account (except checks of not less than seven (7) days and up to sixty (60) days, as required by law, before such withdrawal.) The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. All checks are payable to you as a primary member and will be mailed to your address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits.
- b. Transfer Limitations - As defined by Regulation D, like savings deposits the depository institution must reserve the right at any time to require not less than seven (7) days’ written notice of an intended withdrawal in order to classify the account as a “Now Account” under Regulation D; this practice, this right, is rarely ever used. Additionally, Reg. D allows, during any calendar month, you may not make more than six (6) withdrawals or transfers from a savings account to another Credit Union account or yours (including transfers to checking accounts to cover overdrafts) or a third party by means of a preauthorized or automatic transfer, telephonic order or instruction, or Internet Banking, or similar order to a third party. If you exceed the transfer limitation set forth, your account may be subject to fee and/or closure by the Credit Union.

Overdraft Program Disclosure

At Members First Credit Union (MFCU) we do not encourage overdrafts. Rather, we encourage our employees and members to manage their finances responsibly. However, at times, unanticipated expenses or unforeseen problems can leave members with too little cash in their checking account. Having a check returned due to insufficient funds can be a costly, inconvenient, and potentially embarrassing experience.

MFCU offers two Overdraft Program options:

- 1. Overdraft Protection:
Automatic transfer from another deposit account held at MFCU for a $5 fee per transfer, per day. Transfer increment for debit card transaction(s) is $50.00; all other transaction increments only transfer the amount needed to cover the item.
- 2. Overdraft Privilege:
Standard or Extended coverage allowing members to overdraw their account up to $750 to pay a transaction. To use this Privilege, you will be charged a $25.00 fee per item per presentment. You will not be charged more than four (4) items per day.

Standard Overdraft Privilege includes: Checks, ACH, Recurring Debit Card (Card on file) Transactions, Online Bill Pay Items, Internet Banking Transfers, Telephone Banking and Teller Window Transactions

Extended Overdraft Privilege includes: All items described in Standard Overdraft Privilege and ATM Transactions and Everyday Debit Card Transactions

Transactions Covered with Overdraft Privilege	Standard Coverage (No action required)	Extended Coverage (Your consent required on consumer accounts) *	If you would like to select Extended Coverage for future transactions, or Opt-Out of the program(s):

Standard Coverage may be granted automatically to eligible checking accounts opened at least 60 days in good standing.

*If you choose Extended Coverage, ATM transactions and everyday debit card transactions will be included with the transactions listed under Standard Coverage. If you already have Overdraft Privilege Extended Coverage, it is not necessary to request it again. Overdraft Privilege is not available to Business Accounts.

Call us at (603) 622-8781, email us at servicing@membersfirstnh.org, or come by a branch to enroll or discontinue any of these services.

WHAT ELSE YOU SHOULD KNOW

- A link to another account may be a less expensive option than overdraft privilege. A single larger overdraft will result in just one fee, as opposed to multiple smaller overdrafts. Good account management is the best way to avoid overdrafts. Use our mobile banking, internet banking, and telephone banking services to keep track of your balance. For additional financial education resources, please visit www.mymoney.gov.
- The $25.00 Courtesy Pay Fee that is charged if you overdraw your account more than $10.00 is the same fee amount that is charged if an overdraft item is returned as unpaid. We do not charge a fee if your account is overdrawn by $10.00 or less, provided you are enrolled in and eligible for either Standard Coverage or Extended Coverage on your account at the time of the overdraft. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, up to four (4) items per share, per day will be assessed an appropriate Courtesy Pay Fee or NSF Fee – Unpaid of $25.00. All fees and charges will reduce your available Overdraft Privilege. Your account may become overdrawn more than the Overdraft Privilege limit amount because of a fee. However, after that occurrence, items will be returned unpaid, and an NSF fee will be charged. That fee will also be deducted from your available overdraft limits.
- If an item is returned because the Available Balance (as defined below) in your account is not sufficient to cover the item and the item is presented for payment again, Members First will charge an NSF Fee - Unpaid each time it returns the item because it exceeds the available balance in your account.. When we charge an NSF Fee - Unpaid, the charge reduces the Available Balance in your account and may put your account into (or further into) overdraft. If, on re-presentation of the item, the available balance is sufficient to cover the item (includes your Overdraft Privilege Limit as defined below), and Members First uses the Overdraft Privilege Limit to pay the item, the payment will result in a Courtesy Pay Fee.
- Overdraft Fee charges, are limited to four (4) per share, per day.
- The following describes the posting order for purposes of determining your available balance (the following is deducted from your available balance when the files is received by the Credit Union.

ACH Transaction are processed four (4) times per day at approximately 5:00 am, 12:30 pm, 3:30 pm. and 5:20 pm. Each file posts in the following order:

 - ACH Settlement Day (In accordance with NACHA Rules)
 - ACH Credits
 - ACH Debits
 - All remaining items lowest to highest
 - Drafts (Cash Letters) post lowest to highest
- Although under payment system rules, Members First may be obligated to pay some unauthorized debit card transactions, Members First will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless your account's available balance (including Overdraft Coverage Options) is sufficient to cover the transaction(s).
- Giving us your consent to pay everyday debit card and ATM overdrafts on your account (Extended Coverage) may result in you incurring Courtesy Pay Fees for transactions that we would otherwise be required to pay without assessing a fee. However, this would allow us to authorize transactions up to the amount of your Overdraft Privilege limit and may also help you avoid overdrafts in excess of your available balance that could result in suspension of your debit card. If you consent to Extended Coverage on your account, it will remain on your account until it is otherwise withdrawn by you or Members First.

- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly, and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Membership Agreement & Disclosure. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
- Overdraft Privilege is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.

Understanding your Available Balance:

- Members First authorizes and pays transactions using the available balance in your account. Members First Credit Union may place a hold on deposited funds in accordance with our Membership Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount in your available balance.
- Your available balance is the calculation of the amount of money in your account:
 - minus any credits or debits that have not fully posted to the account yet
 - minus any account holds such as check holds and/or pending debit card transactions
 - plus any Overdraft Protection as well as any available Overdraft Privilege.

Standard Coverage uses your available balance to clear checks, ACH items, recurring debit card transactions, Online Bill Pay items, Internet Banking Transfers, Telephone Banking, and teller window transactions. Extended Coverage uses your available balance to clear all Standard Coverage items plus ATM Transactions and Everyday Debit Card Transactions.

- Members First's determination of an insufficient available account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's midnight deadline with only one review of the account required. You will be notified if your account does not have the sufficient available funds to pay an overdraft.
- Please be aware that the Overdraft Privilege amount is not included in your available balance provided through online banking, mobile banking, or ATMs.
- Members First will place a hold on your account for any authorized debit card transaction until the transaction settles (usually within two business days) or as permitted by the payment system rules. In some cases, the hold may exceed the amount of the transaction. When the hold ends, the funds will be added to the available balance in your account. If your account is overdrawn after the held funds are added to the available balance and the transaction is posted to the available balance, an NSF Paid Fee or NSF Unpaid Fee may be assessed.
- Because your Available Balance reflects pending transactions and debit holds, your Current Balance may appear to cover a transaction but later upon settlement it may not be sufficient to cover the transaction. In such cases, where a transaction was approved with a positive Available Balance, but settlement occurs against a negative Available Balance, the transaction may further overdraw your account but would not be subject to additional overdraft fees. You should assume that any item which would overdraw your account based on your Available Balance may create an overdraft.
- Except as described herein, Members First will not pay items if the available balance in your account (including the Overdraft Privilege limit, if applicable) is not sufficient to cover the item(s).

Understanding Debit Card Privileges

- Members First may suspend your debit card if you incur overdrafts in excess of the available balance in your account, including any Overdraft Privilege limit (as described herein). Debit cards on your account will remain suspended until you make sufficient deposits so that your available balance, taking into account any Overdraft Privilege limit, is positive for one business day and then you contact us.
- Members First may also suspend your debit card if your account is overdrawn more than thirty-two (32) consecutive calendar days. Debit cards on your account will remain suspended until you make sufficient deposits so that your account balance is positive for one business day and then you contact us.
- Members First may also suspend your debit card if we are unable to contact you due to an incorrect mailing address or phone number(s). You must contact us with your correct mailing address and/or phone number(s) to have your debit card reinstated.
- If your debit card is suspended, you will be unable to use your debit card for purchases or to access your account at the ATM, and if you use your debit card for recurring payments, e.g. utilities, you are responsible to make other arrangements for your recurring debit payment(s).

Understanding Overdraft Privilege Limits

- An Overdraft Privilege Limit of $750 may be granted to eligible checking accounts opened at least 60 days in good standing. A review of activity will be conducted just before the 60 day mark, and if the account has not been maintained satisfactorily, including an average balance of $750, the privilege may not be extended. You will be notified if this delay is applied.
- Overdraft Privilege may be reduced if you default on any loan or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, or if you fail to maintain your account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within thirty-two (32) days for a minimum of one business day.
- Overdraft Privilege may be suspended or permanently revoked during an extended repayment plan or due to excessive use of and or/default of an extended repayment plan(s); we may also suspend the limit if your direct deposit is cancelled while your account is overdrawn thirty-two (32) days or more or during an extended repayment plan. You must bring your account balance positive for at least one business day, or complete the terms of your extended repayment plan in full to have the full Overdraft Privilege limit reinstated, if the overdraft limit was not permanently revoked as a condition of the extended repayment plan.

- When a member exceeds their Overdraft Privilege Limit of $750, it is Members First's policy to not permit further overdrafts. Under certain emergency situations (technical problems, inclement weather), Members First reserves the right to make exceptions to this Policy.

Understanding Program Notifications

- Upon each occurrence of an overdraft, Members First will notify the member by mailed notices of their negative balance on the account and all fees assessed.
- The Overdraft Privilege program will generate letters to the members the first time they use the service, when an account has been consistently negative for 10, 20, and 32 days.
- Members First will endeavor to identify "heavy users" of the program, and contact them to see if they qualify for any other available program or solution better suited to their needs.

Understanding Program Default

- If the account is not brought current within the required timeframe, it will be charged off at the 45th day or shortly thereafter, not exceeding 60 days, if deemed to be uncollectable.
- In some cases, Members First may allow a member to cover an overdraft through an extended repayment plan when the member is unable to bring the account to a positive balance within the required timeframe. The existence of the repayment plan, however, would not extend the charge-off determination period beyond the 60 days as measured from the date of the overdraft. Any payments received after the account is charged-off will be posted to the appropriate general ledger accounts.
- If you enter into an extended repayment plan and you default on that plan, Members First reserves the right to make any and all owed balances due upon demand.

If you have any questions about Overdraft Protection or Overdraft Privilege, please call us at (603)622-8781 or visit a branch.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT OVERDRAFTS AND OVERDRAFT FEES

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money* in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We have standard overdraft practices that come with your account.
2. We also offer overdraft protection plans, such as a link to another account, which may be less costly than our standard overdraft practices. To learn more, ask about these plans.

This notice explains our standard overdraft practices.

➤ What are the standard overdraft practices that come with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic bill payments

We do not authorize any pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions without your consent (opt-In):

- ATM transactions
- Everyday debit card transactions

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

➤ What fees will I be charged if Members First Credit Union of N.H. pays my overdraft?

Under our standard overdraft practices:

- We will charge you a fee of up to $25.00 each time we pay an overdraft if your account is overdrawn more than $10.00.
- We will not charge a fee if your account is overdrawn by $10.00 or less.
- There is a limit of four (4) overdraft fees per share, per day we can charge you for overdrawing your account.

➤ What if I want Members First Credit Union of N.H. to authorize and pay overdrafts on my ATM and everyday debit card transactions?

If you want us to authorize and pay overdrafts on ATM and everyday debit card transactions, call (603) 622-8781, visit our website at www.membersfirstnh.org, email us at servicing@membersfirstnh.org, or complete the form below and present it at a branch or mail it to: PO Box 896 Manchester, NH 03105. You can revoke your authorization for Members First Credit Union of N.H. to pay these overdrafts at any time by any of the above methods. Your revocation must include both your name and your account number so we can properly identify your account.

_____ I do not want Members First Credit Union of N.H. to authorize and pay overdrafts on my ATM and everyday debit card transactions.

* Your available balance is the calculation of the amount of money in your account:

- minus any credits or debits that have not fully posted to the account yet
- minus any account holds such as check holds and/or pending debit card transactions
- plus any Overdraft Protection as well as any available Overdraft Privilege.

Standard Coverage uses your available balance to clear checks, ACH items, recurring debit card transactions, Online Bill Pay items, Internet Banking Transfers, Telephone Banking, and teller window transactions. Extended Coverage uses your available balance to clear all Standard Coverage items plus ATM Transactions and Everyday Debit Card Transactions.

14. Postdated and Stale Dated Drafts – You agree not to date a check or draft later than the date that you write it (“postdating”). If you do issue a check or draft that is payable on a future date and we pay it before that date, you agree that we shall have no liability to you for such a payment. You agree not to deposit checks, drafts or other items before they are properly payable. We are not obligated to pay a check or draft, other than one that has been certified, which is presented more than six (6) months after its date, but the Credit Union may charge your account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.
15. Checks Presented in Person – We may refuse to accept any check or draft drawn on your account that is presented for payment in person. Such refusal shall not constitute a wrongful dishonor of the check or draft and we shall have no liability for refusing payment.
16. Remotely Created Checks – For purposes of this paragraph, “account” means a transaction account, credit account, and any other account on which checks (share drafts) may be drawn. A remotely created check is a check created by someone other than the person on whose account the check is drawn. Authorization is usually made over the telephone or through an on-line communication. The owner of the account does not sign a remotely created check. In place of the owner’s signature, the remotely created check usually bears a statement that the owner authorized the check or bears the owner’s printed or typed name. If you authorize a third party to draw a remotely created check against your account, you may not later revoke your authorization. It is your responsibility to resolve any authorization issues directly with the third party. We are not required to credit your account and may charge against your account any remotely created check for which the third party has proof of your authorization.
17. Printed Draft Purchases – The Credit Union reserves the right to require that all purchases of printed drafts be done through authorized draft printers. If you should use drafts printed by someone other than those authorized by the Credit Union, we may reject said drafts and charge a fee for each draft rejected in accordance with the Fee Schedule.
18. Automated Teller Machines – Transactions may be made to and from your account by using an Automated Teller Machine (ATM) in conjunction with one of the various networks to which the Credit Union belongs. If you decide to apply for and receive an ATM card you are bound by the terms of the separate agreement and disclosure statement. Transactions may be made to and from your account by using an ATM and/or Debit Card. If you decide to apply for and receive an ATM and/or Debit Card, you are bound by terms of the separate agreement and disclosure statement for use of this card.
19. Stop Payment Orders:
 - a. Payment Request - You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check or draft drawn on your account or any ACH debit scheduled from your account. You may request a stop payment by mail, by telephone, or in person. For checks and ACH debits, the stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act on the order. For pre-authorized ACH debits, the stop payment order must be received at least three (3) banking days before the scheduled date of the transfer. You must state the number of the account, date and exact amount of the check or ACH, and the number of the check or the originator of the ACH debit. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item.
 - b. Duration of Order - If you make an oral stop payment, the Credit Union requires written authorization of the stop payment within fourteen (14) days. A written stop payment order is effective for twelve (12) months. A written stop payment order may be renewed in writing from time to time. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires.
 - c. Liability - The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested as set forth in the Fee Schedule. You may not stop payment on any certified check, cashier’s check, teller’s check, or any other check, draft, or payment guaranteed by the Credit Union. You should be aware that while payment of the item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any person, including the Credit Union, who is a holder of the item despite the stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney’s fee, damages or claims related to the Credit Union’s action in refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple account owner, payee or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.
20. Statements:
 - a. Contents - If the Credit Union provides a periodic statement for your account, you will receive a periodic statement of transactions and activity on your account during the statement period as required by law. If a statement is provided, you agree that only one (1) statement is necessary for joint accounts. If statement is provided, it will be mailed to you at your last known address on record. You may elect to receive an electronic version of your statement, which will be sent electronically to your last known e-mail address. For share draft or checking accounts, you understand and agree that your original check or draft, when paid, becomes property of the Credit Union and may not be returned to you, but copies may be retained by us or be payable through financial institutions and made available upon your request. You understand and agree that statements are made available to you on the date they are sent to you. You also understand and agree that checks, drafts or copies thereof are made available to you on the date the statement is sent to you, even if the checks or drafts do not accompany the statement.
 - b. Examination - You agree to exercise reasonable care and promptness in examining each statement to discover any error or irregularity including, but not limited to, any unauthorized signature and alteration, and you further agree to notify the Credit Union promptly after such discovery. Otherwise, the statement, as printed and received, will be deemed to be correct. Moreover, because you are in the best position to discover an unauthorized signature, an unauthorized endorsement, or a material alteration, you agree that the Credit Union will not be liable for paying such items if (1) you did not exercise reasonable care in examining the statement or you have not reported the forgeries or alterations to the Credit Union within thirty (30) days of the mailing or emailing date of the earliest statement containing these items, or such period as may otherwise be required by law or government regulation, or (2) these items were forged or altered so cleverly and expertly (as by unauthorized use of a facsimile machine or otherwise) that the forgery or alteration could not be detected by a reasonable person.

- c. Notice to the Credit Union – You agree that the Credit Union’s retention of checks or drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements and draft copies or the time limit for notifying the Credit Union of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes and we will not be liable for any payment made or charged to your account unless you notify us in writing within the above time limit for notifying us of errors. If you fail to receive a periodic statement, you agree to notify us within 14 days of the time you regularly receive a statement.

21. Notices:

- a. Name or Address Changes - You are responsible for notifying us of any address or name change. The Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us. We may require all name(s) and address changes to be provided in writing. If we attempt to locate you, we may impose a service fee as set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or the Fee Schedule and Charges.
 - b. Notice of Amendments - Except as prohibited by applicable law, we may change the terms of this Agreement. We will notify you of any change in terms, rates, or fees as required by law. We reserve the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect our right to future enforcement.
 - c. Effect of Notice - Any written notice you give us is effective when we receive it. Any written notice we give to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any account owner is considered notice to all account owners.
 - d. Electronic Notices - If you have agreed to receive notices electronically, we may send you notices electronically and discontinue mailing proper notices to you until you notify us that you wish to reinstate receiving paper notices.
 - e. Social Security Number – Your failure to furnish your correct Social Security Number (SSN) could result in suspension of your account.
 - f. Taxpayer Identification Numbers and Backup Withholding – Your failure to furnish a correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or meet other requirements may result in backup withholding. If your account is subject to backup withholding, we must withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a percentage of dividends, interest, and certain other payments. If you fail to provide your TIN, we may suspend your account.
 - g. Pledge/Statutory Lien – Unless prohibited by law, you pledge and grant as security for all obligations you may have now or in the future, except obligations secured by your principal residence, all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest, if any, in all accounts you have with us now and in the future. If you pledge a specific dollar amount in your account for a loan, we will freeze the funds in your account(s) to the extent of the outstanding balance of the loan or, if greater, the amount of the pledge if the loan is a revolving loan. Otherwise, funds in your pledged account(s) may be withdrawn unless you are in default. Federal or state law, depending upon whether we have a federal or state charter, gives us a lien on all shares and dividends and all deposits and interest if any, in accounts you have with us now or in the future. Except as limited by state or federal law, the statutory lien gives us the right to apply the balance of all your accounts to any obligation on which you are in debt. After you are in default, we may exercise our statutory lien rights without further notice to you. Your pledge and our statutory lien rights will allow us to apply the funds in your account to what you owe when you are in default, except as limited by state or federal law. If we do not apply the funds in your account(s) to satisfy your obligation, we may place an administrative freeze on your account(s) in order to protect our statutory lien rights and may apply the funds in your account(s) to the amount you owe us at a later time. The statutory lien and your pledge do not apply to any Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) or any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. By not enforcing our right to apply funds in your account to your obligations that are in default, we do not waive our right to enforce these rights at a later time.
 - h. Negative Information Notice – We may report information about your loan, share or deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report.
22. Right of Setoff – If you owe the Credit Union money as a borrower, guarantor, endorser or otherwise, and it becomes due, the Credit Union, unless prohibited by law, has the right under this Agreement, in which you grant the Credit Union a security interest in your account, to use the money in your account to pay the debt. The Credit Union may use this money to pay the debt even if withdrawal results in an interest penalty or dishonor of drafts. In the case of a joint account, each joint owner agrees that the Credit Union may use the money in the joint account to satisfy any one of the joint owner’s obligations. Similarly, each joint owner further agrees that the Credit Union may use the money in his or her individual account(s), if any, to satisfy obligations in the joint account. If the Credit Union chooses not to enforce its lien, the Credit Union does not waive its right to enforce the lien at a later time. The security interest mentioned above is consensual.
23. Denial of Service – No Credit Union services will be provided to any Member who has caused a loss to the Credit Union. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any service to any Member at any time.
24. Legal Process – If any legal action is brought against your account, your use of it may be restricted. We may pay out funds according to the terms of the action or refuse any payout until the dispute is resolved. Any expenses or attorney fees we incur responding to legal process may be charged against your account without notice, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to our lien and security interest. These obligations include, but are not limited to, disputes between you and the Credit Union involving the account and situations where the Credit Union becomes involved in disputes between you and an authorized signer, another joint owner, or a third party claiming an interest in the account. It also includes situations where you, an authorized signer, another joint owner, or a third party take action with respect to your account that causes the Credit Union, in good faith, to seek the advice of counsel, whether or not the Credit Union actually becomes involved in the dispute.

25. Termination of Account – We may terminate your account at any time without prior notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account. You may terminate an individual account by giving written notice. Customarily, any joint account owner can terminate a joint account; however, we reserve the right to require the consent of all owners to terminate a joint account. We are not responsible for payment of any check, draft, withdrawal, or other item after your account is terminated; however, if we pay an item after termination, you agree to reimburse us for the amount of our payment as well as any applicable fees.
26. Termination of Membership – You may terminate your membership by giving us written notice or by withdrawing your minimum required membership share, if any, and closing all your accounts. You may be denied services for causing a loss to the Credit Union or you may be expelled for any reason as allowed by applicable law.
27. Death or Incompetence of Account Owner – We may continue to honor all transfer orders, withdrawals, deposits, and other transactions on an account until we know of a Member's death or legal adjudication of incompetence. Once we know of a Member's death or incompetence, we may pay checks or drafts or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased Member for a period of ten (10) days after that date unless we receive instructions from any person claiming interest in the account to stop payments on the checks, drafts or other items. We may require anyone claiming a deceased owner's account funds to indemnify us for any losses resulting from our honoring that claim. This Agreement will be binding upon any heirs or legal representatives of any account owner.
28. Agency Designation on an Account – An agency designation on an account is an instruction to us that the owner authorizes another person to make transactions as agent for the account owner regarding the accounts designated. An agent has no ownership interest in the account(s) or voting rights. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction made by the agent.
29. Account Information – Upon request, we will give you the name and address of each agency from which we obtain a credit report regarding your account. We agree not to disclose account information to third parties except when: (1) it is necessary to complete a transaction; (2) the third party seeks to verify the existence or condition of your account in accordance with applicable law; (3) such disclosure complies with the law or a government agency or court order; or (4) you give us written permission.
30. Inactive Accounts – If your account falls below any applicable minimum balance and you have not made any transactions over a period specified in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or Fee Schedule, we may classify your account as inactive or dormant. Unless prohibited by applicable law, we may charge a service fee, as set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure or Fee Schedule, for processing your inactive account. If we impose a fee, we will notify you, as required by law, at your last known address. You authorize us to transfer funds from another account of yours to cover any service fees, if applicable. To the extent allowed by law, we reserve the right to transfer the account funds to an account payable and to suspend any further account statements. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and we have had no other sufficient contact with you within the period specified by state law, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be reported and remitted in accordance with state law. Once funds have been turned over to the state, we have no further liability to you for such funds and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency.
31. Special Account Instructions – You may request that we facilitate certain trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because we do not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your trust, will, or court order. If you ask us to follow any instructions that we believe might expose us to claims, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to indemnify us or post a bond or provide us with other protection. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by a signed Account Change Form and accepted by us.
32. Deposit Protection – Members' funds are insured to $250,000 per member by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund in accordance with the terms and conditions of the National Credit Union Administration's (NCUA) Rules and Regulations. Under the NCUA's Rules and Regulations, up to $250,000 in deposit insurance will be provided for the money a Member has in a variety of accounts. In addition, Individual Retirement Accounts and other retirement accounts will be protected under the new rules to $250,000 and are insured separately from other accounts at the same Credit Union that will continue to be insured up to at least $250,000. Members exceeding the maximum level of coverage provided by NCUA may also be insured up to an additional $250,000 by insurance provided by Excess Share Insurance (ESI). Excess deposit insurance is payable only upon the failure and liquidation of the Credit Union. Please contact the Credit Union for more information. Additional coverage is available upon request from you at a nominal fee.
33. Severability – If a court holds any portion of the Agreement to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect. All headings are intended for reference only and are not to be construed as part of this Agreement.

34. Enforcement – You are liable to us for any losses, costs or expenses, we incur resulting from your failure to follow this Agreement. You authorize us to deduct any such losses, costs or expenses from your account without prior notice to you. If we bring a legal action to collect any amount due under or to enforce this Agreement, we shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions.
35. Credit Union Liability – If we do not properly complete a transaction according to this Agreement, we will be liable for your losses or damages not to exceed the amount of the transaction, except as otherwise provided by law. We will not be liable if: (1) your account contains insufficient funds for the transaction; (2) circumstances beyond our control prevent the transaction; (3) your loss is caused by you or another financial institution’s negligence; or (4) your account funds are subject to legal process or other claim. We will not be liable for consequential damages, except liability for wrongful dishonor. We exercise ordinary care if our actions or non-actions are consistent with applicable state law, Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearinghouse rules, and financial institution practices followed in the area we serve. You grant us the right, in making payments of deposited funds, to rely exclusively on the form of the account and the terms of this Agreement. Any conflict between what you or our employees may say or write will be resolved by reference to this Agreement.
36. Modification of Agreement – The Credit Union may, at any time, modify any provision(s) of this Agreement. Except as described below, the Credit Union will notify you by mailing, in your statement or to the statement address, written notification of any change in (a) through (e) below that would affect your account, and any other amendment that may adversely affect your account, at least thirty (30) days before the effective date of the amendment:
- The frequency of compounding interest;
 - The frequency of crediting interest;
 - Grace periods;
 - Minimum balance requirements;
 - Rates, fees, charges and penalties that directly affect your account.
- When thirty (30) days’ notice is not required by law, notice of amendments will be posted in all of our offices or mailed to you at least 15 days before the effective date of the amendment. Copies of these amendments will be available at the Credit Union upon request. The Credit Union will not provide advance notice of changes in the rate of interest or the effective annual yield on variable rate accounts.
37. Governing Law – This Agreement is governed by federal laws and regulations, the laws, including applicable principles of contract law, and regulations of the state in which the Credit Union’s main office is located, and local clearing house rules, as amended from time to time. As permitted by applicable law, you agree that any legal action regarding this Agreement shall be brought in the county and State in which the Credit Union is located.

Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Agreement

This Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement is the contract that covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning the electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) services offered to you by Members First Credit Union of NH (“Credit Union”). In this Agreement, the words “you” and “yours” mean those who sign the application or account card as applicants, joint owners or any authorized users. The words “we,” “us,” and “our” mean the Credit Union. The word “account” means any one or more share and share draft accounts you have with the Credit Union. Electronic funds transfers are electronically initiated transfers of money from your account through the electronic funds transfer services described below. By signing an application or account card for EFT services, signing your Card or using any service, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement and any amendments for the EFT services offered.

1. EFT Services

If approved, you may conduct any one or more of the EFT services offered by the Credit Union.

a. ATM Card. If approved, you may use your Card and PIN (Personal Identification Number) in automated teller machines of the Credit Union and other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate. At the present time, you may use your Card to:

- Withdraw funds from your share and share draft accounts.
- Transfer funds from your share and share draft accounts.
- Obtain balance information for your share and share draft accounts.
- Deposit checks and/or cash at a Members First ATM.
- Make POS (Point-of-Sale) transactions with your Card and PIN (Personal Identification Number) to purchase goods or services at POS terminals that carry network logo(s) designated by the Credit Union.

The following limitations on the frequency and amount of ATM Card transactions may apply:

- There is no limit on the number of cash withdrawals you may make in any one day.
- You may withdraw up to a maximum of $600 in any one day by ATM cash withdrawals.
- There is no limit on the number of POS transactions you may make in any one day.
- You are limited to $400 per day for POS transactions
- For security purposes, there are other limits on the frequency and amount of transfers available at ATMs.
- You may transfer up to the available balance in your accounts at the time of the transfer.
- See Section 2 for transfer limitations that may apply to these transactions.

b. MasterMoney® Debit Card. If approved, you may use your MasterCard to purchase goods and services from participating merchants. Your daily limits for cash withdrawals is $1,500 and your POS for your daily limits is $4,000. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card member security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. You agree that you will not use your Card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state or local law. Funds to cover your Card purchases will be deducted from your checking account associated with the MasterCard. If the balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the credit union may not pay the amount and the transaction may be declined.

If you have elected to enroll in the Credit Union's Overdraft Privilege Extended Coverage Program, the Credit Union may pay the amount of insufficient ATM and one-time debit transactions and assess the appropriate fee (for complete details of this program, please refer to the Credit Union's Overdraft Privilege Coverage Disclosure). If you have elected to have an overdraft transfer source, we will treat this transaction as a request to transfer funds from other deposit accounts, approved overdraft protection accounts or loan accounts that you have established with the Credit Union, and the appropriate fee will be assessed. If you initiate a transaction that overdraws your Account, you agree to make immediate payment of any overdrafts together with any service charges to the Credit Union. In the event of repeated overdrafts, the Credit Union may terminate all services under this Agreement. You may use your MasterCard and PIN (Personal Identification Number) in Automated Teller Machines of the Credit Union, and other machines or facilities as the Credit Union may designate. At the present time, you may also use your Card to:

c. Telephone Banking (Audio Response). If we approve the Telephone Banking audio response service for your accounts, a PIN (Personal Identification Number) will be assigned to you. You must use your PIN (Personal Identification Number) along with your account number to access your accounts. At the present time you may use the audio response access service to:

- Transfer funds from your share, share draft, cash multiplier and club accounts. See Section 2 for transfer limitations that may apply to these transactions.
- Obtain balance information for your share, share draft, cash multiplier, loan and club accounts.
- Make loan payments from your share draft, cash multiplier and club accounts.
- Determine if a particular item has cleared.
- Verify the last date and amount of your payroll deposit.
- Change your PIN

Your accounts can be accessed using the audio response service via a touch-tone telephone only. The service will be available for your convenience twenty-four (24) hours per day. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. The service will discontinue if no transaction is entered after numerous unsuccessful attempts to enter a transaction, and there may be limits on the duration of each telephone call.

d. Pre-Authorized EFTs

- Direct Deposit. Upon instruction of (i) your employer or (ii) the Treasury Department or (iii) other financial institutions, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of your paycheck or of federal recurring payments, such as Social Security, to your savings or checking account.
- Preauthorized Debits. Upon instruction, we will pay certain recurring transactions from your share and share draft account.
- See Section 2 for transfer limitations that may apply to these transactions.
- Stop Payment Rights. If you have arranged in advance to make regular electronic fund transfers out of your account(s) for money you owe others, you may stop payment of preauthorized transfers from your account. You must notify us orally or in writing at any time up to three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the transfer. We may require written confirmation of the stop payment order to be made within fourteen (14) days of any oral notification. If we do not receive the written confirmation, the oral stop payment order shall cease to be binding fourteen (14) days after it has been made.
- Notice of Varying Amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay is required to tell you, ten (10) days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.

- Liability for Failure to Stop Payment of Preauthorized Transfers.

If you order us to stop payment of a preauthorized transfer three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

- Pre-Authorized Credits. Upon instruction, we will credit certain recurring transactions to your share and share draft account.

- Notice of Receipt. Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item, and we will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.

- Provisional Payment. Credit given by us to you with respect of an automated clearing house (ACH) credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive final settlement you are hereby notified and agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via ACH shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry.

- Choice of Law. We may accept on your behalf payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses (ACH) and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire as provided by the operating rule of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account.

e. Electronic Check Conversion/Electronic Returned Check Fees. If you pay for something with a check or share draft, you may authorize your check or share draft to be converted to an electronic fund transfer. You may also authorize merchants to electronically debit your account for returned check fees. You are considered to have authorized these electronic funds transfers if you complete the transaction after being told (orally or by a notice posted or sent to you) that the transfer may be processed electronically or if you sign a written authorization.

f. Online/Mobile Banking EFTs. If we approve the online/mobile access service for your accounts, a PIN (Personal Identification Number) will be assigned to you. You must use your PIN (Personal Identification Number) along with your account number to access your accounts. At the present time, you may use the Online/Mobile access service to:

- Transfer funds from your share, share draft, cash multiplier and club accounts.
- Obtain balance information for your share, share draft, club, cash multiplier and loan accounts.
- Make loan payments from your share, share draft, club accounts and cash multiplier accounts.

Your accounts can be accessed via personal computer or mobile device. Services will be available for your convenience twenty-four (24) hours per day. Services may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing. We reserve the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon insufficient funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. We may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. We may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. The service will discontinue if no transaction is entered after numerous unsuccessful attempts to enter a transaction, and there may be limits on the duration of each access.

- There is no limit to the number of inquiries, transfers or withdrawal requests you may make in any one day.
- The maximum withdrawal or transfer amount is $9,999.99 per transaction, and no transfer or withdrawal may exceed the available funds in your account.
- See Section 2 for transfer limitations that may apply to these transactions.

g. Bill Payments. We will process bill payment transfer requests only to those creditors the Credit Union has designated in the User Instructions, such creditors as you authorize and for whom the Credit Union has the proper vendor code number. We will not process any bill payment transfer if the required transaction information is incomplete. We will withdraw the designated funds from your checking account for bill payment transfer by the designated cut-off time on the date you schedule for payment. We will process your bill payment transfer within a designated number of days before the date you are scheduled for payment. You must allow sufficient time for vendors to process your payment after they receive a transfer from us. Please leave as much time as though you were sending your payment by mail. We cannot guarantee the time that any payment will be credited to your account by the vendor.

- There is no limit on the number of bill payments per day.
- The maximum amount of bill payments each day is $9,999.99, provided there are sufficient funds in your account.

2. Transfer Limitations

For each individual share savings account, limitations apply to certain transactions. Withdrawals, including transfers, made by the following means are limited to a combined total of six (6) per month per savings:

- check and/or draft
- automated clearing house (ACH)
- debit card (excluding withdrawals/transfers made at an ATM)
- telephone or audio response
- online/mobile banking
- other, one-time or recurring electronic/automated withdrawals, including, but not limited to, overdraft transfers.

If these limitations are exceeded, your account may be subject to a fee, restricted, or closed.

3. Conditions of EFT Services

a. Ownership of Cards. Any Card or other device that we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the Card, immediately according to instructions. The Card may be repossessed at any time at our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your Card or account to another person.

b. Honoring the Card. Neither we nor merchants authorized to honor the Card will be responsible for the failure or refusal to honor the Card or any other device we supply to you. If a merchant agrees to give you a refund or adjustment, you agree to accept a credit to your account in lieu of a cash refund.

c. Foreign Transactions - MasterCard. If you effect a transaction with your MasterCard card in a currency other than U.S. dollars, MasterCard International Incorporated will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount. MasterCard International will use its currency conversion procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue MasterCard cards. Currently the currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such transactions is generally either a government mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by MasterCard International for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by one percentage point. The currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date.

d. Security of Access Code. You may use one or more access codes with your electronic funds transfers. The access codes issued to you are for your security purposes. Any codes issued to you are confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with the Card. You are responsible for safekeeping your access codes. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access codes available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your access codes that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. You understand that any joint owner you authorize to use an access code may withdraw or transfer funds from any of your accounts. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your EFT services immediately.

e. Joint Accounts. If any of your accounts accessed under this Agreement are joint accounts, all joint owners, including any authorized users, shall be bound by this Agreement and, alone and together, shall be responsible for all EFT transactions to or from any share and share draft or loan accounts as provided in this Agreement. Each joint account owner, without the consent of any other account owner, may, and hereby is authorized by every other joint account owner to, make any transaction permitted under this Agreement. Each joint account owner is authorized to act for the other account owners, and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding any EFT transaction on any account from any joint account owner.

4. Overdrafts. If, on any day and any occurrence, the available funds in your share or deposit account are not sufficient to pay the full amount of a check, draft, item, transaction or other items posted to your account plus any applicable overdraft fee ("NSF Fee - Unpaid, or Courtesy Pay Fee"), we may pay or return the overdraft. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient available account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's deadline with only (1) review of the account required. You will be notified if your account does not have sufficient available funds to pay an overdraft. Your account may be subject to a charge for each overdraft regardless of whether we pay or return the overdraft. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, if we exercise our right to use our discretion to pay an overdraft, we do not agree to pay overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time without notice. If we pay an overdraft or impose a fee that overdraws your account, you agree to pay the overdrawn amount, plus any fees involved, in accordance with your overdraft protection and/or privilege plan or, if you do not have such a plan, in accordance with our Overdraft Policy. For details on the Credit Union's overdraft features for share draft accounts, refer to the Overdraft Program Disclosure.

5. Fees and Charges. There are certain fees and charges for electronic funds transfer services. From time to time, the charges may be changed. We will notify you as required by applicable law. If you use an ATM not operated by us, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator and by any national, regional or local network used in processing the transaction (and you may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if you do not complete a fund transfer). The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction or continue with the balance inquiry.

- Please refer to the Fee Schedule for any fees.

6. Member Liability. You are responsible for all transactions you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement. If you permit someone else to use an EFT service, your Card or your access code, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. However, TELL US AT ONCE if you believe your Card and/or access code has been lost or stolen or if you believe someone has used your Card or access code or otherwise accessed your accounts without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum Overdraft Line of Credit). You are not liable for an unauthorized MasterCard debit card transaction that was not conducted at an ATM if you can demonstrate that you exercised reasonable care in protecting your Card from loss or theft, you have not reported two or more incidents of unauthorized use in the past twelve (12) months, and your account is in good standing. Otherwise your liability for an unauthorized MasterCard debit card transaction that was not conducted at an ATM will be no more than $50. For all other EFT transactions involving access devices, including transactions conducted at ATMs, your liability for unauthorized transactions is determined as follows:

- If you tell us within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Card or code without your permission.
- If you do NOT tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Card or code, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your Card or code without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

If you believe your Card has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call:

(603) 622-8781
Fax: (603) 641-2458

Or write to: Members First Credit Union of NH
PO BOX 896
Manchester, NH 03105

a. Right to Receive Documentation. Periodic Statements. Transfers and withdrawals made through any ATM or POS terminal, Debit Card transactions, audio response transactions, preauthorized EFTs, electronic/PC transactions or bill payments you make will be recorded on your periodic statement. You will receive a statement monthly unless there is no transaction in a particular month. In any case, you will receive a statement at least quarterly.

b. Terminal Receipt. You may get a receipt at the time you make any transaction (except inquiries) involving your account using an ATM, POS terminal, or Debit Card transaction with a participating merchant. Please note: vendors may not be required to furnish a receipt for transactions under a certain amount.

c. Direct Deposit. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by calling (603) 622-8781. This does not apply to transactions occurring outside the United States.

7. Account Information Disclosure. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- As necessary to complete transfers;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- If your account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services, and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested services(s).
- To comply with government agency or court orders; or
- If you give us your written permission.

8. Business Days. Our business days are Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

9. Credit Union Liability for Failure to Make Transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we may be liable for your losses or damages. However, we will not be liable for direct or consequential damages in the following events.

- If, through no fault of ours, there is not enough money in your accounts to complete the transaction, if any funds in your accounts necessary to complete the transaction are held as uncollected funds pursuant to our Funds Availability Policy, or if the transaction involves a loan request exceeding your credit limit.
- If you used your Card or access code in an incorrect manner.
- If the ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
- If the ATM was not working properly and you knew about the problem when you started the transaction.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, or power failure) prevent the transaction.
- If the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim.
- If funds in your account are pledged as collateral or frozen because of a delinquent loan.
- If the error was caused by a system of any participating ATM network.
- If the electronic transfer is not completed as a result of your willful or negligent use of your Card, access code, or any EFT facility for making such transfers.
- If the telephone or computer equipment you use to conduct audio response or electronic/PC transactions is not working properly and you know or should have known about the breakdown when you started the transaction.
- If you have bill payment services, we can only confirm the amount, the participating merchant, and date of the bill payment transfer made by the Credit Union. For any other error or question you have involving the billing statement of the participating merchant, you must contact the merchant directly. We are not responsible for investigating such errors.
- Any other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.

10. Notices. All notices from us will be effective when we have mailed them or delivered them to your last known address in the Credit Union's records. Notices from you will be effective when received by the Credit Union at the address specified in this Agreement. We reserve the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. We will mail notice to you at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing the Credit Union account and any future changes to those regulations.

11. ATM Safety. The following information is a list of safety precautions regarding the use of Automated Teller Machines (ATM) and Night Deposit Facilities.

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly at night.
- Consider having someone accompany you when the ATM or night deposit facility is used after dark.
- If another person is uncomfortably close to you at the time of your transaction, ask the person to step back before you complete your transaction.
- Refrain from displaying your cash at the ATM or night deposit facility. As soon as your transaction is completed, place your money in your purse or wallet. Count the cash later in the safety of your car or home.

- If you notice anything suspicious at the ATM or night deposit facility, consider using another ATM or night deposit facility or coming back later. If you are in the middle of a transaction and you notice something suspicious, cancel the transaction, take your Card or deposit envelope, and leave.
- If you are followed after making a transaction, go to the nearest public area where people are located.
- Do not write your personal identification number or code on your ATM Card.
- Report all crimes to law enforcement officials immediately.

12. Error Resolution. In case of errors or questions about electronic funds transfers from your share and share draft accounts, telephone us at the following number, or send us a written notice to the following address as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem appears. Call us at:

(603) 622-8781

Fax. (603) 641-2458

Or write to: Members First Credit Union of NH

PO BOX 896

Manchester, NH 03105

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the electronic transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe the Credit Union has made an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
- If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not credit your account. We will tell you the results within three (3) business days of completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

If you give notice of an error within thirty (30) days after you make the first deposit to your account, we will have twenty (20) business days instead of ten (10) business days. If you give notice of an error within thirty (30) days after you make the first deposit to your account, notice of an error involving a point of sale transaction, or notice of an error involving a transaction initiated outside the U.S., its possessions and territories, we will have ninety (90) days instead of forty-five (45) days to investigate.*

13. Termination of EFT Services. You may terminate this Agreement or any EFT service under this Agreement at any time by notifying us in writing and stopping your use of your Card and any access code. You must return all Cards to the Credit Union. You also agree to notify any participating merchants that authority to make bill payment transfers has been revoked. We may also terminate this Agreement at any time by notifying you orally or in writing. If we terminate this Agreement, we may notify any participating merchants making preauthorized debits or credits to any of your accounts that this Agreement has been terminated and that we will not accept any further preauthorized transaction instructions. We may also program our computer not to accept your Card or access code for any EFT service. Whether you or the Credit Union terminates this Agreement, the termination shall not affect your obligations under this Agreement for any EFTs made prior to termination.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the state of New Hampshire and local clearinghouse rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which the Credit Union is located.

15. Enforcement. You are liable to us for any loss, cost or expenses we incur resulting from your failure to follow this Agreement. You authorize us to deduct any such loss, costs or expenses from your account without prior notice to you. If we bring a legal action to collect any amount due under or to enforce this Agreement, we shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment of reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions.

Truth in Savings Disclosure

For Savings & Transaction Accounts: Regular Savings Accounts, Club Accounts (Holiday, Vacation, Tax, All-Purpose), Cash Multipliers, Youth Accounts, Money Market Accounts, Checking Accounts, IRA Accounts, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), Escrow Accounts

1. Rate Information

The Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) on your accounts are set on the respective Account Rate Schedules. The APY is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate, frequency of compounding for a 365 day period, and assuming the principle is not reduced. All variable rate accounts and their APYs may change after the account is opened. The dividend rate and APY may change at any time at the discretion of the Credit Union.

2. Nature of Dividends

Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after providing for the required reserves. The dividend rates and APYs are the prospective rates and yields that the Credit Union anticipates paying for the applicable dividend period. For interest bearing accounts closed prior to the end of the dividend period, dividends will be paid up to the date of the account closing.

3. Compounding and Crediting

Dividends will be compounded and credited monthly. The dividend period begins on the first calendar day of the dividend period and ends on the last calendar day of the dividend period. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period for a calendar year is 1/1/xx and the ending date for such dividend period is 1/31/xx. The dividend declaration date would be 2/1/xx.

4. Accrual of Dividends

Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you contribute to your account (for both cash and non-cash deposits).

5. Balance Information

The minimum balance required to open each account is set forth on the respective Account Rate Schedules. Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

6. Transaction Limitation

As defined by Regulation D, we reserve the right at any time to require not less than seven days' notice in writing before each withdrawal from a dividend paying account other than a term share, or from any other savings account. And, during any month, you may not make more than six withdrawals or transfers from each account to another Credit Union account or yours (including transfers to checking accounts to cover overdrafts) or a third party by means of a preauthorized or automatic transfer, automated telephone request or Digital Banking, or similar order to a third party (excludes all checking accounts). If you exceed the transfer limitation set forth, your account may be subject to a fee and/or closure by the Credit Union.

7. Fees

Fees and charges may be assessed against your account as set forth in the Fee Schedule. Please see this schedule for a complete listing of all fees.

8. Bylaw Requirements

The shareholdings of a Member who fails to complete payment of one share within 6 months of his admission to membership, or within 6 months from the increase in the par value in shares, or a Member who reduces his share balance below the par value of one share and does not increase the balance to at least the par value of one share within 6 months of the reduction, may be absorbed by a late charge upon authorization of the Board. The Credit Union reserves the right, at any time, to require Members to give, in writing, not more than 60 days' notice of intention to withdraw the whole or any part of the amounts so paid in by them except for those amounts paid into checking accounts. Shares paid in under an accumulated payroll deduction plan may not be withdrawn until credit to a Member's account. No Member may withdraw shareholdings that are pledged as required security on loans without written approval of the Credit Committee or a loan officer, except to the extent that such shares exceed the Member's total primary and contingent liability to the Credit Union. No Member may withdraw any shareholdings except for those amounts paid into checking accounts below the amount of his/her primary or contingent liability to the Credit Union if he/she is delinquent as a borrower, or if borrowers for whom he/she is co-maker, endorser, or guarantor are delinquent, without the written approval of the Credit Committee or loan officer.

9. Par Value of Shares

The par value of a regular share in this Credit Union is $5.00.

10. National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund

Member accounts in this Credit Union are federally insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund.

11. Other Terms and Conditions

This Truth-In-Savings Disclosure is a supplement to the Membership and Account Agreement as well as the Account Rate Schedules, Fee Schedule, Electronic Fund Transfer Disclosure, and our Funds Availability Disclosure and Policy.

Funds Availability Policy

Members First Credit Union uses the following guidelines in determining funds availability. Availability is measured in business days following the banking day on which the deposit is made; multiple items deposited during the same banking day are aggregated. Business days are defined as any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or federally declared legal holiday; banking days are any business day when we are open for substantially all of our banking activities. All references to the number of days to funds availability in this guide indicate maximum time limits for making funds available; we may provide earlier availability of funds if we choose and may extend the time when funds are available in some circumstances. The credit union may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds in your account, should funds exceeding the amount made available at the time of deposit be returned to you or withdrawn prior to scheduled availability. For items not presented in person, the date of deposit is the business day the credit union reviews the deposit for credit to the account.

Member Liability – Please understand you are responsible for any loss resulting from items deposited into your account. For your convenience, funds may be made available for withdrawal before final payment has been received. If at any time it's determined that an item may not or will not be paid, the Credit Union may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account or debit your account for the amount credited. If sufficient funds are no longer available in your account, your account may be overdrawn and you will be responsible for the negative balance and any associated fees.

Endorsements – To protect your account, we may require endorsements to be made in person and payees to present a valid photo ID.

Same-Day Availability* - Funds from deposits made in person will be made available on the date of deposit for the following items:

- Cash
- Checks drawn “on us” (Share/Loan drafts or cashier checks drawn on Members First Credit Union)
- Electronic payments including wire transfers and preauthorized credits such as payroll or Social Security benefits
- U.S. Treasury checks, U.S. Postal Service Money Orders, Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank checks
- Federal, state, or local government checks
- Cashier’s, certified, teller’s, and traveler’s checks
- Payroll checks (drawn off an official payroll account)

Special Rules for Same-Day Availability Items:

- Endorsements for all payees are required.
- Third party items will not be accepted.
- Items payable jointly to a member and a non-member may only be deposited into that member’s account in the presence of the non-member payee, who must present valid photo identification to a credit union employee at the time of deposit. The ID description and expiration for any non-member payee may be recorded on the check at the time of verification.

Second-Day Availability - for deposits of types not discussed above and made in person, a maximum of $550 will be made available on the day of deposit; remaining funds will be made available by the 2nd business day following the day of deposit.

Longer Delays May Apply: If we are not going to make all of the funds that you deposit available to you according to our standard availability schedule, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit and tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made in person to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. Exceptions to our standard schedule of availability may apply in any of the following circumstances:

- The checks you are depositing total more than $6,725 on one business day.
- A check which has previously returned unpaid is re-deposited, though the reason for non-payment has not been corrected.
- Your account has been repeatedly overdrawn during the previous six months.
- There’s reasonable cause to doubt the item will be paid (including third party or stale/post-dated items and items lacking proper endorsements).
- If there is an emergency, such as communication/computer failure.
- If you have a new account that has been open for less than 30 days

The credit union reserves the right to refuse or return any deposit for any reason, including, but not limited to those identified above.

The schedules below apply when items are deposited into the named payee’s account with the proper endorsements.
