As a major sponsor of the Footrace for the Fallen 5k, Members First contributed $7,500 to the event to support the Manchester Police Athletic League (MPAL).

MANCHESTER, NH (October 29, 2018) – Members First Credit Union recently donated $7,500 to the Manchester Police Athletic League (MPAL) through its sponsorship of the Footrace for the Fallen 5k Road Race on October 14. MPAL is a non-profit organization that provides after school and summer athletic and recreational activities to Manchester-area youth. The annual race honors police officers who have died in the line of duty.

“It’s wonderful to see the growing number of runners and walkers come together year after year to benefit area youth and honor our city’s police officers,” said Bruce Leighton, Members First Credit Union president and CEO. “We are extremely proud to sponsor this annual event, and grateful for the dedicated service of the men and women in uniform who serve our community.”

Proceeds for the Footrace for the Fallen annual event benefit the Manchester Police Athletic League (MPAL). Members First Credit Union is proud to support MPAL as a major sponsor of the event.
