Members First Credit Union Employees Go Casual to Benefit Waypoint

Donation will support human services for people of all ages

MANCHESTER, NH (November 15, 2019) – Members First Credit Union employees take casual day seriously. Each Friday, they give $5 to dress down in jeans and other casual attire to support local charities. Members First recently donated $410 from the Casual Friday Fund to Waypoint, a nonprofit organization in Manchester that provides services for people of all ages.

“Serving and supporting our community is an important part of the credit union’s mission,” said Terry Wiegelman, vice president of marketing at Members First. “And we are deeply honored to support Waypoint in their mission to provide human services for individuals and families in our community.”

Waypoint works collaboratively in the community, creating a social safety net for all who live here. They find solutions to problems through dual roles as practitioners and advocates, while making a positive, long-lasting impact on people’s lives.

About Members First Credit Union

Since 1949, Members First Credit Union has been a trusted financial resource in Manchester, Bedford and surrounding communities. We get to know our members so we can recommend the right solutions to help them reach their goals. In other words: we're small enough to make a big difference.

As a full-service financial institution, we offer the products and services our members need, whether for themselves, their family or business. And because we're not for profit, earnings go back to our members, so they can save and borrow at reasonable rates. Membership is open to anyone living, working, or attending school in New Hampshire.
